

Safety Quiz - Equipment Safety

Name _____ Date _____

Directions: Read each question carefully and choose the most correct answer by completely filling in the box next to the answer

1. You may only operated equipment
  - A. If you are sure you will not get hurt
  - B. Are trained and authorized
  - C. If no one else knows the procedures
  - D. None of the above

2. If you see warning labels or signs on equipment you should
  - A. Read and understand what they mean
  - B. Follow all the precautions in the labels
  - C. Ask your supervisor if you don't understand
  - D. All of the above

3. If you see a broken part on a tool or piece of equipment you should
  - A. Tell a supervisor
  - B. Use it carefully
  - C. Try to repair it
  - D. Both B and C

4. Equipment hazards include
  - A. Amputation
  - B. Electric Shock
  - C. Noise
  - D. All of the above

5. Machine guards are
  - A. People who guard equipment
  - B. Plates and covers that go over hazardous equipment parts
  - C. Not required at your workplace
  - D. Can be move or removed by any employee

6. When operating equipment it is safe to take short cuts
  - True
  - False

7. Equipment Operating instructions are
- A. For new employee
  - B. Only guidelines
  - C. Specific steps to follow every time
  - D. None of the above
8. If a piece of equipment jams, you should
- A. Attempt to un-jam it so you can keep working
  - B. Un-plug the machine
  - C. Back away at least 10 feet
  - D. Tell your supervisor
9. The emergency stop button is for
- A. Normal starting and stopping of equipment
  - B. Only for managers and supervisors
  - C. For me to use if someone is caught in a machine
  - D. Only for Fire Department Use
10. If a machine guard is missing I should
- A. Not use the machine
  - B. Put a temporary cover over the area
  - C. Tell my supervisor
  - D. Both A and C
11. Equipment interlocks are for
- A. Preventing the machine from operating in an unsafe condition
  - B. Connecting two or more machines
  - C. Helping new employees operating machines safely
  - D. Management use to monitor equipment
12. If I see fluid leaking from a machine I should
- A. Use a rag to slow the leak
  - B. Clean up the fluid at the end of my shift
  - C. Use water to dilute the fluid
  - D. Immediately tell a supervisor