

Hazard Communication Quiz-2

1. Which of the following words signals the most severe hazards?

- (A) Warning
- (B) Danger
- (C) Caution
- (D) Notice

2. This symbol warns against which of the following hazards?

- (A) Unidentified hazard
- (B) Biological waste
- (C) Radioactive biological hazard
- (D) Biohazard

3. This symbol warns against which of the following hazards?

- (A) Electrical hazard
- (B) Ionizing radiation
- (C) Dangerous, high-powered ventilation
- (D) Dangerous when frozen
- (E) None of the above

4. This symbol warns against which of the following hazards?

- (A) Beware of snowflakes
- (B) Cold storage required
- (C) Low temperature or cryogenic hazard
- (D) Dangerous when frozen

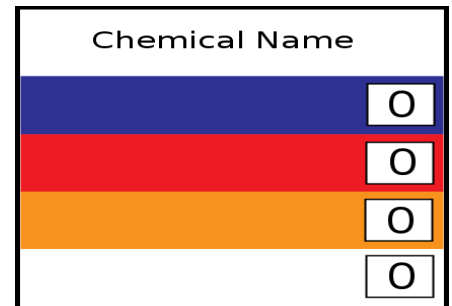

5. This symbol warns against which of the following hazards?

- (A) Hazardous to both living and non-living material
- (B) Dangerous liquid, don't touch
- (C) Acidic
- (D) Corrosive

6. This is a "Hazardous Material Identification System" label. What hazards do the blue, red, orange, and white bars refer to, respectively?

- (A) Flammability, health, reactivity, personal protection
- (B) Reactivity, flammability, personal protection, and health
- (C) Health, flammability, reactivity, personal protection
- (D) Personal protection, reactivity, health, flammability

7. If you want more information about the hazards of a chemical with which you are working, your employer must provide you a SDS -

- (A) The next time you come to work
- (B) At the end of your shift
- (C) Immediately
- (D) Within 4 hours of your request

8. Which of the following specific procedures must your training include, to protect you from exposure to hazardous chemicals?

- (A) Appropriate work practices
- (B) Emergency procedures
- (C) Personal protective equipment
- (D) All of the above

9. Every container in your work area holding a hazardous chemical must be properly labeled, including a portable container which you have filled from a labeled container, and which you intend to use during your work shift.

- (A) True
- (B) False

10. The maintenance department in your plant found that Lysol® Toilet Bowl Cleaner does a great job for polishing the outside of storage tanks. Your supervisor says that there is no need to train you because the material is a common consumer cleaning product and you will be using it for its intended use. Is this the proper procedure?

- (A) Yes
- (B) No